CLERK, CHARLESTON, SC

February 14, 2025

Honorable David C. Norton
US District Court
PO Box 835
Charleston, SC 29402

Dear Judge Norton,

Case Details

Re: Case Number 2:25-CV-00405-DCN-MHC

Request

I am writing to request a continuance for the deadline to respond to a Motion to dismiss from the defendant Curtiss Wright, Stephanie Lanier and Shane Sablotsky in the above mentioned court case from attorney Chase Samples from Jackson Lewis Law Firm scheduled on February 25, 2025. I need more time to obtain a new attorney to adequately respond to the defendant's answer and motion.

Reason

Due to the complexity of the case and the need for additional time to obtain legal counsel after my former attorney Bonnie Hunt submitted a motion to be relieved on February 1, 2025 which requires my response by February 18, 2025. There has been a breakdown in the attorney client relationship with Bonnie Hunt. Attorney Hunt has made false statements regarding my case and misled me in her ability to represent me in all aspects of my case. Attorney Hunt has suggested that I find other attorneys to represent me for other aspects of my case because she does not practice that area of law. There were 3-4 claims that are viable that Attorney Hunt will not represent me. I asked Attorney Hunt if she would hire a co-counsel and she refused. Attorney Hunt then said that I should find another lawyer but then tried to get me to sign a lawyer termination DocuSign document.

In Attorney Hunt's declaration to the court in item number 8 Attorney Hunt stated I called her names, lied about what she told me and refuse to listen to her. These statements are false and slanderous. Item number 10 Attorney Hunt stated that she provided me information to file a complaint with ODC but provided me a copy of a Resolution of Fee Disputes Board form which goes to the SC Bar Association in hopes of confusing me.

Attorney Hunt violated the following rules under ABA to include the following:

Rule 1.1 Competence - A lawyer shall provide competent representation to a client. Competent representation requires the legal knowledge, skill, thoroughness and preparation reasonably necessary for the representation.

Rule 1.16(d) Withdrawal from Representation - Upon termination of representation, a lawyer shall take steps to the extent reasonably practicable to protect a client's interests, such as giving reasonable notice to the client, allowing time for employment of other counsel, surrendering papers and property to which the client is entitled and refunding any advance payment of fee or expense that has not been earned or incurred. The lawyer may retain papers relating to the client to the extent permitted by other law.

Rule 1.2 Scope of Representation & Allocation of Authority Between Client & Lawyer -

States attorney must follow a client's objectives unless those objectives are illegal or unethical. I asked multiple times that Attorney Hunt add Title VI to my claim before and after she filed the lawsuit and she refused stating that Title VI only applied to welfare programs. I told her that Super lawyer Donald Gist told me that I had a Title VI claim and 2 other lawyers stated the same thing. Attorney Hunt refused to add that claim to my lawsuit.

Rule 1.4 Communication – Requires an attorney to communicate clearly and honestly with a client about the scope of representation. Attorney Hunt did not state upfront what her capabilities to represent me with the complex issues involving my case. I sent all documentation surrounding the case at the beginning of November of 2024. I wasn't told until late January 2025 what she was incapable or unwilling to do in representing me. Attorney Hunt refused to provide research notes or site references when asked which she was required to keep me reasonably informed about my case.

Rule 1.16(d) Declining or Terminating Representation - Upon termination of representation, a lawyer shall take steps to the extent reasonably practicable to protect a client's interests, such as giving reasonable notice to the client, allowing time for employment of other counsel, surrendering papers and property to which the client is entitled and refunding any advance payment of fee or expense that has not been earned or incurred. The lawyer may retain papers relating to the client to the extent permitted by other law.

Rule 3.3(a)(1) Candor Toward the Tribunal - states a lawyer shall not knowingly make false statements of fact or law to a tribunal or fail to correct a false statement of fact to correct a false statement of material fact or law previously made to the tribunal by the lawyer

Rule 8.4, 8.4(c) and (d) Misconduct – It is professional misconduct for a lawyer to engage in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation and conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice.

Conclusion

I have emails and would like to request a hearing to present documentation to the court. I respectfully ask for an extension of my response to the Motion to Dismiss to ensure a fair and thorough presentation of my case. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Debra Nelson". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Debra: I told you I would not file it and if you wanted it filed you had to do it. Therefore i was under no obligation to file it.

The NLRB has no jurisdiction because the same exact claims were filed with the EEOC.

Debra: I downloaded all the documents and reviewed them because that is how I determined there was no appealable issue. I informed you I would not file it and if you wanted it filed you needed to file it on your own. Just because you say it is a lie does not mean it did not happen. I have consistently told you the NLRB has no jurisdiction over the claims and you are not listening and have decided that since I am not telling you what you want to hear I am lying to you and now I am your target. This is ridiculous we are supposed to be a team but you keep attacking me.

I will return half your non-refundable retainer and you can go find another lawyer to handle all your cases. We obviously have suffered a fundamental breakdown of the attorney client relationship.

I am tired of having to defend everything I do and say.

There may be a lawyer that will take you and all your cases.

And to reiterate I am not filling any other claims for you. I have filled the title VII, 42 USC 1981, and individual claims.

Please let me know what you want to do.

You have a strange relationship with the truth. you never said anything about giving me half my retainer back.

Regarding the $4,500 retainer, I request an itemized breakdown of actual work performed and will be challenging any portion of that fee that is unjustified.

Since you refused to represent me on all necessary claims and limited my case contrary to my instructions, you are not entitled to any financial compensation from any future outcome. If you attempt to assert a lien, I will vigorously contest it, as your failure to fully represent my legal interests disqualifies you from any entitlement to future proceeds.

Please confirm in writing that you will withdraw from my case and will not assert a lien against any future recovery. I expect to receive all case materials within five business days of this email.

Debra:

There is a difference between conspiracy and protecting your employer. Unfortunately, you do not meet the elements of conspiracy and I will not file a case that I cannot prove. On the fact level, yes they all got together to get you terminated but that does not meet the legal definition of conspiracy or the case law definition in South Carolina and South Carolina law governs.

Bonnie:

I hope you're doing well.

It's been a while since we've had a case together, but we have a new one as Jackson Lewis is representing Curtiss-Wright in the new lawsuit you've filed on behalf of Debra Nelson. Joe and I look forward to working with you.

We had our initial call with our client today who shared some information that we wanted to pass along to you.

First, we will be representing the individual Defendants, Stephanie Lanier and Shane Sablotsky. If you have not already served them, then we can accept service on their behalf.

Second, as recently as this week Ms. Nelson has been in contact with both Ms. Lanier and Mr. Sablotsky. Her contacts are intimidating my clients and making them uncomfortable, and we respectfully request that Ms. Nelson cease such conduct immediately. For example, on New Year's Eve, Ms. Nelson messaged Ms. Lanier on LinkedIn with the words "check mate" and she also sent a smiley face to Mr. Sablotsky. Please instruct Ms. Nelson to stop this harassing behavior and refrain from any future contact with these individuals.

Third, the Company has not been properly named in the lawsuit. The correct entity that employed Ms. Nelson was Curtiss-Wright Electro-Mechanical Corporation. Curtiss-Wright Corporation is not a proper party. We can accept service of an amended complaint naming the proper entity.

Fourth, we are advised that Ms. Nelson had posted videos on YouTube related to the allegations in this case that she has since deleted. Please instruct your client to preserve those videos as well as any other records related to this lawsuit, including posts on social media. Attached is a more detailed preservation letter.

Hi Bonnie.

I hope you had a nice weekend. I'm just following up on my email below. I have not heard about any further contact between Ms. Nelson and the individual Defendants in this case and so I'm hopeful that issue has been addressed and resolved. But, please let me know if you will be filing an Amended Complaint reflecting the proper name of the employing entity.

We plan to remove this case to federal court this week. Would you be agreeable to a 21-day extension of time for the Defendants to respond to the complaint (or amended complaint) upon removal?

Please call if you would like to discuss. Thanks.

Hi Bonnie.

I hope you have been enjoying the snow.

We filed the removal yesterday, and so that should be coming through once the courthouse opens back up.

I finally received Ms. Nelson's personnel records. Most of what was in the file simply identifies the company as "Curtiss-Wright." However, Ms. Nelson's pay statements all reflect the proper employer as Curtiss-Wright Electro-Mechanical Corporation. Attached are a couple of examples. Curtiss-Wright Electro-Mechanical Corporation does business as Curtiss-Wright Steam and Air Solutions, and so you'll also see that name or Curtiss Wright SAS on some of the records. We're glad to accept service of an Amended Complaint reflecting this entity.

Please call if you would like to discuss.

The latest email from the other attorney and my response. I believe they are playing games with the name. It appears there are so many names that it operates under that it may be attempting to avoid liability for the Curtiss-Wright Corporation.

They want any case against unknown entities so the corporation can avoid being named.

I will let you know if he produces the documentation or not.

Good morning, Bonnie.

Thank you for the update. We received the Amended Complaint, and I'll sign the acceptance of service when I'm back in the office tomorrow.

But, unfortunately, the Amended Complaint doesn't address the proper employer issue. Curtiss-Wright Electro-Mechanical Corporation is registered with the Secretary of State and has a registered agent as you'll see from the screenshot below. As I mentioned last week, that company does business as Curtiss-Wright Steam and Air Solutions. My client's preference would be that the only named Defendant is "Curtiss-Wright Electro-Mechanical Corporation d/b/a Curtiss-Wright Steam and Air Solutions" but I understand if you feel the need to leave Curtiss-Wright Corporation as a co-Defendant at this point.

The clerk's office would probably replace what you filed yesterday with a new document reflecting the proper entity without having to file a Second Amended Complaint. I certainly have no objection to that.

Please call if you'd like to discuss.

Good Morning Chase:

Thank you for the paycheck stubs. In response to your previous email I had my client research her paychecks as well and there are two different companies listed on the paycheck stubs. Curtiss Wright Electronic Systems and Curtiss Wright Electro Mechanical. Neither of these listed companies have a proper registered agent as written on the paycheck stub of my client.

I will file an amended complaint in compliance with your request. However, it will be listed Curtiss Wright doing business as these two companies.

If you have any questions or would like to discuss I will be returning to the office on Monday from Vacation.

Hi Bonnie.

I hope you have been enjoying the snow.

We filed the removal yesterday, and so that should be coming through once the courthouse opens back up.

I finally received Ms. Nelson's personnel records. Most of what was in the file simply identifies the company as "Curtiss-Wright." However, Ms. Nelson's pay statements all reflect the proper employer as Curtiss-Wright Electro-Mechanical Corporation. Attached are a couple of examples. Curtiss-Wright Electro-Mechanical Corporation does business as Curtiss-Wright Steam and Air Solutions, and so you'll also see that name or Curtiss Wright SAS on some of the records. We're glad to accept service of an Amended Complaint reflecting this entity.

Please call if you would like to discuss.

Yes, I am aware but all of the official documentation-just states Curtiss Wright. An email signature block is written by the sender so they can put whatever they want in it. We need them to prove the company that you were employed with and your paycheck stubs state differently. In 27 years of doing this the court has enforced this by what is on the paycheck stub.

Item 4 cont. I have never made a secret of what I can handle and what I cannot handle. I handle employment law only and that was clear in my contract. I will not hire another attorney to handle the other aspects of your case because I did not agree to handle the Qui Tam, DOD IG, Navy IG, or any other claims. My contract specifically states that I will handle the Title VII and 42 U.S.C. 1981 claims. If you wish to hire another attorney to handle the DOD IG claims, hacking/surveillance claims I encourage you to do so.

You did not provide the DOD IG and Navy IG claims information until after we signed the contract so I could not have agreed to handle these matters.

I agreed to look into the hacking/surveillance claims, I did not agree to take the claims. I looked into them and discovered that I cannot handle them for you because they require extensive knowledge that I do not have and an expert that I do not have on retainer.

This is the email that set forth what I would handle. You brought up all the other claims in the meeting and after this meeting.

You did not mention the other possible claims that could have been brought until during this meeting or after this meeting.

I told you I would look into the hacking/surveillance claims and I did not agree to handle them.

Also as you stated yesterday you never asked me to do anything with the DOD IG case until yesterday.

I encourage you to seek other counsel on the hacking/surveillance matters.

However, the DOD IG and Navy IG claims regarding race discrimination, retaliation and hostile work environment are EEOC claims and are not properly filed with the DOD IG and Navy IG claims. Those claims have been properly filed with the court currently and do not need to be refiled.

Hello Debra:

I have reviewed the information that you presented regarding your case against Curtis Wright.

As I previously stated, I think your strongest case is the Retaliation claim and the Retaliatory Hostile Work Environment claim. The sex discrimination and the race discrimination are going to be difficult-not impossible but difficult to meet the legal threshold.

There are a few things that you need to know. There are no guarantees in these types of cases. As an attorney, under the professional rules of responsibility I am only permitted to tell you that there is only a 50/50 chance of being successful. I am not allowed to represent you more than that. I can tell you I do not take a case that I don't think I can win or at least resolve in your favor.

2/10/25, 9:15 AM

I do charge a retainer for my work and my experience.

If you wish to retain me to represent you in the litigation and the EEOC process the retainer is $4,500.00. The retainer is due at the time you sign the contract. At the end of trial or resolution I take 1/3 total recovery plus costs. I do not do appeals but do not believe that you will need one.

Please let me know how you would like to proceed. If you would like to discuss any of the above I should have some time available on Monday.

This is not personal. I am your attorney and I was retained to represent you in a legal matter that is limited by contract. I cannot file the DOD IG, Navy IG cases related to complaints regarding discrimination because I do not believe those are viable cases under the law. As to the hacking/surveillances-I do not have the expertise to do so. That is a business decision not a personal decision. If I could I would but professionally it would be a very bad decision that would open my career up to malpractice and that is something I will not do.

I would like Title VI, Wiretapping and Conspiracy (civil) added to my lawsuit against Curtiss-Wright. I asked about Title VI in your office before I signed the contract. You said you would look into it. I already had an attorney tell me that my case qualified for Title VI as I told you. I would like that added to my case as well as the Conspiracy claim. I sent the supporting documentation needed.

Also there has been nothing mentioned by you about how you plan to find out who has been hacking me and following me. This should be top priority because if something happens to me then you don't have a case. So what are you currently doing to make sure that this matter is addressed?

Good Morning Debra:

You can request that I had claims. However, I have already informed you I will not add any claims to the current litigation nor will I file any other claims for you.

We discussed Title VI and Conspiracy. I informed you I would not file either. They are not viable claims and I will not file frivolous claims.

I will not be adding the Wiretapping claims as I have informed you I do not do those and will not file them for you. You need to find another attorney to handle that matter or all matters that you wish to pursue.

It is actually in this email chain from 7:56 pm and it states:

Debra: I downloaded all the documents and reviewed them because that is how I determined there was no appealable issue. I informed you I would not file it and if you wanted it filed you needed to file it on your own. Just because you say it is a lie does not mean it did not happen. I have consistently told you the NLRB has no jurisdiction over the claims and you are not listening and have decided that since I am not telling you what you want to hear I am lying to you and now I am your target. This is ridiculous we are supposed to be a team but you keep attacking me.

I will return half your non-refundable retainer and you can go find another lawyer to handle all your cases. We obviously have suffered a fundamental breakdown of the attorney client relationship.

I am tired of having to defend everything I do and say.

There may be a lawyer that will take you and all your cases.

And to reiterate I am not filing any other claims for you. I have filed the title VII, 42 USC 1981, and individual claims.

Please let me know what you want to do.

I will agree to not put a lien on future recovery. I do not want it. I would not do that to you or any other client.

All of your case is in electronic format, there are no paper copies. I will upload all documents to a Dropbox server for you to have for your file and present to your new counsel. When you have new counsel please have them give me a call so that I can provide them access to the file.

Please let me know what address to mail a jump drive of your file and the check for 1/2 your retainer.

For the Court you will be required to sign a release of me as your attorney and that you will represent yourself or find new counsel.

Hello Debra:

Here is a rough draft of the complaint. I am still doing some research to see if we can add a cause of action for the reports to the Department of the Navy.

This case covers discrimination, race sex and age, Retaliation and Hostile Work Environment.

Please review and ensure that I have the facts correct.

If you have a correction please send me an email with the Paragraph number and the correction.

I will be reading through it this weekend again and running spell check.

Ok. I do not do Qui Tam actions.

However, I want to make sure that you do not fall under our State cause action for Wrongful Termination in Violation of Public Policy. I do not know if the Department of Navy would fall under that. I am doing the research to make sure.

Qui Tam would not apply to your complaints filed with NAV because it is money/fraud etc. You complained about work environment, violations of ethics/policies, etc.

I am going to read through the research this weekend.

Let me know what you think about the complaint.

Bonnie Travaglio Hunt <bthunt@huntlawllc.com>
To: Debra Nelson <[REDACTED]>

Mon, Dec 16, 2024 at 8:53 AM

First how do you think you fall under Title VI?

I do not do Title VI. Title VI also does not apply in your case, it has nothing to do with hacking. Title VI prohibits discrimination in any program that receives federal funds or financial assistance that provides services, aids or benefits in welfare programs.

During discovery we will be allowed to request all documents that the defendant has related to you. Any electronic or physical. If we discover who is hacking you then you will have a cause of action under the Computer fraud and abuse act. You will need to find an attorney who specializes in that Act who has an expert on retainer to testify as to how it was done and the violation of your phones and computers.

Title VI applies to any agency receiving federal funds. I was discriminated against based on my race. Attorney Donald Gist said this case fell under Title VI.

Mon, Dec 16, 2024 at 8:59 AM

I know Title VI has nothing to do with hacking. I want to know how are we going to pursue it. If I'm going to continue to be hacked there is no need for me to file a lawsuit. My quality of life is being affected.

[Quoted text hidden]

Bonnie Travaglio Hunt <bthunt@huntlawllc.com>
To: Debra Nelson <[REDACTED]>

Mon, Dec 16, 2024 at 8:59 AM

Actually if you file a Title VI case it would be dismissed because it does not apply in employment. Title VII applies in employment. Title VI applies when it is welfare or other programs that provide assistance.

The intent of the lawsuit is to get you money for what they did to you. During the lawsuit we will figure it out through discovery and document requests. Right now you cannot sue them for hacking you because you cannot prove who is hacking you. When we figure that out through this litigation then you will be able to file a suit regarding that. I will not file litigation based on a suspicion without direct evidence and proof that they are hacking you.

Hello Debra:

I have been doing this for 27 years. As the paragraph states in certain circumstances. It is not the first sentence you need to look at-it is the second. The primary of objective of Curtis Wright is not to provide employment but to manufacture a product.

If they were an employment agency that received federal funding then Title VI would apply. Title VII and 42 U.S.C. 1981 cover the claims that you have.

Here is the specific provision of the law that applies:

Nothing contained in [Title VI] shall be construed to authorize action under [Title VI] by any department or agency with respect to any employment practice of any employer, employment agency, or labor organization except where a primary objective of the Federal financial assistance is to provide employment.

Hello Debra:

I looked at all the causes of action you could have brought in an employment situation before I signed the contract with you.

What contract did you have? What terms were breached?

Also Civil Conspiracy requires special damages and you don't meet the legal definition of "special" damages.

The one thing that after drafting your complaint that we could add is slander and intentional interference with employment relations against Stephanie Lanier.

Did Shane make false statements to Curtiss to get you fired like Lanier or did he just make false statements in that meeting?

There is a specific requirement that Shane make false statement to Curtiss management that led to your termination. We know Lanier did that by documentation.

Mon, Jan 27, 2025 at 6:38 AM

Ok. Now I am just confused. Your first email was you wanted to know what I had done with this case and whether it was filed and now you are telling me you did not ask me to file anything.

Let me make this clear:

I have reviewed all of the claims you filed with each Federal Agency that you sent me despite not having agreed to file anything other than the race, sex, and retaliation claims pursuant to Title VII and 42 U.S.C. 1981 (per our contract). You filed the same facts with every agency and only one agency had jurisdiction over your claims- the EEOC. You alleged sex and race discrimination with retaliation. Except you file claims with the DOD IG alleging discrimination and a cover up.

The DOD complaint has two components: the allegation you filed with Navy IG that you state was ignored and your allegation of illegal surveillance, hacking and coverup of your allegations. I looked into both as I told you I would. The Navy IG has no jurisdiction as the NLRB because the facts are the same and the EEOC has jurisdiction over those types of claims. The fact is that you need an expert in the field of hacking/surveillance to investigate and file a report that the hacking/surveillance is directly linked to the Navy and Curtiss Wright. I cannot find anyone who will do this. So I referred you to the attorney who is an expert in suing over hacking and surveillance. I will not file a case related to hacking/surveillance-I do not do this type of law again it would be malpractice for me to take on a case that I cannot do. I am a specialist-I do employment law related to wrongful termination, discrimination, etc.

You stated in your correspondence to the DOD that you know the Navy is trying to cover up the issues in your case because it is already in the news but in none of the emails I have do you clarify. There may be something there if you ever clarified with the DOD investigator.

I have appointments all morning but if I get a chance I will call you to clarify.

[Quoted text hidden]

Bonnie Travaglio Hunt <bthunt@huntlawllc.com>
To: Debra Nelson <[REDACTED]>

Mon, Jan 27, 2025 at 7:24 AM

I understand this is your life you don't go through something like this and it not be your whole life but you also have to understand that lawyers have specialties and no one lawyer would take 5 different cases for 1 retainer. From the beginning I have told you that I do employment law. I referred you to other attorneys in the very beginning for the Qui Tam based on the IG complaint you told me about. I also sent you my contract to review prior to signing and it specifically states Title VII and 42 U.S.C. 1981 which is all we discussed on the phone. However, when you showed up to your appointment you informed me of all the other cases you had filed. I informed you that I would look into them but did not agree to represent you on them. You have to understand that the other types of cases require experts that I do not have because I do not practice that type of law. I am not brushing you off-I would take all of your cases if I could but I do not do these so I know that I would miss something or not do it properly and that would be a further injustice to you. The question is do you want the case done or done properly. If you want it done properly then you need an expert in that field. Not someone trying to do it. I will not try to do something if I am not confident that I can handle it.

I told you everything as you asked. At no point did you say that I can't handle this part or that part. We discussed more than Title VII and you know it. If you were not certain about the other claims you could have postponed me giving the check and signing the contract, but you didn't. One of the most important parts sounds like you're saying you don't handle that either. You have yet to give me any info on who is tracking my devices. If you had made all these things clear in the beginning then I would have continued to look for another lawyer. You can't handle the easiest parts of the case and think you're operating in my best interest. I know it's all about money with you lawyers. I don't expect you to do anything for free but I do expect you to represent me to the best of your ability. It sounds to me that you're taking the easy way route which is a disservice to me. Why can't you hire other lawyers to assist you? The Boeing case had 2 law firms representing the guy that was murdered.

You do understand that there is a level of danger to my life? There is so much going on I don't get a chance to tell you everything. There was a guy standing in front of my house around 1am on July 5th. He was just standing in the street with a small dog. He was just standing there and I became suspicious and called 911. So like I said I need to hit them with every claim and law violation that I can.

Debra:

I am sorry that you are going through this. I wish I could help you with all of it. I understand the stress that you are under and fear. But I cannot represent you on things I do not do. I am not an expert in information technology and could not tell you who or how someone is tracking your devices. That part is not easy. You need an expert in that field.

I am representing you to the best of my ability on what I am able to handle. All these other cases I cannot and will not handle.

The cases that I could handle and told you I will not handle are the Navy complaint (it was dismissed because of no jurisdiction) and the NLRB complaint (it was dismissed because of no jurisdiction and overlap of governmental investigation). V2X complaint because there is no violation of the law.

As to the other claims you want to pursue, You brought up the hacking/surveillance in our initial appointment to discuss the contract. Your specific statement was I need to tell you other stuff. I told you I would look into it and I did. But I cannot handle it.

If I could represent you in all these other cases your retainer would have been well over $15,000.00 because of the types of cases that you have.

So there is documentation of retaliation towards me for challenging my supervisor for writing me up

Please keep in mind that all of the documentation states that I will only handle the Title VII, 42 U.S.C. 1981 and Retaliation. All the documentation you provided me before our appointment on November 1, 2024 related to your EEOC claims. Only after we signed the contract did you send all the other documentation.

I cannot pursue it for you. Witness Tampering is a crime that is pursued by the prosecutor's office under Federal Law 18 U.S.C. Code Section 1512. Witness Tampering is the actual threat of physical violence, intimidation, harassment to alter the testimony of an individual in a case. Considering that there has not been any witness testimony through a deposition or trial that type of incident has not occurred in this case.

I as an attorney have nothing to do with these types of claims as they are criminal not civil.

I cannot pursue it for you. Witness Tampering is a crime that is pursued by the prosecutor's office under Federal Law 18 U.S.C. Code Section 1512. Witness Tampering is the actual threat of physical violence, intimidation, harassment to alter the testimony of an individual in a case. Considering that there has not been any witness testimony through a deposition or trial that type of incident has not occurred in this case.

I as an attorney have nothing to do with these types of claims as they are criminal not civil.
