C.A. No.: 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

Plaintiff's Supplemental Complaint Adding Count XI – Retaliation for Protected Activity (Post-Deposition Termination)

I. INTRODUCTION

Briefly explain that this supplement adds events that occurred after the filing of your Revised Third Amended Complaint — specifically, your termination on October 29, 2025, and related retaliatory conduct following your deposition on October 28, 2025.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

FILED USDC FLND PN
NOV 13 '25 AM 10:10

AB

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

Reaffirm that jurisdiction and venue remain proper under Title VII, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e, and 28 U.S.C. § 1331, and that all claims arise from the same employment relationship and continuing retaliation by Amentum Corporation and its agents.

III. FACTUAL BACKGROUND (Newly Arising Events)

You'll outline the sequence that occurred after your prior filing:

1. On October 28, 2025, Plaintiff participated in a deposition in Nelson v. Curtiss-Wright Electro-Mechanical Corp., a related employment discrimination case pending in the U.S. District Court for the District of South Carolina.
2. During that deposition, Attorney T. Chase Samples of Jackson Lewis P.C., representing Curtiss-Wright, questioned Plaintiff about her separate lawsuit against Amentum Corporation and had a copy of Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint in the Amentum case.
3. On October 29, 2025, less than 24 hours later, Plaintiff was terminated from her employment with Amentum Corporation.
4. At 3:06 p.m., Amentum issued the termination letter, and at 3:52 p.m., Amentum's counsel, Attorney Lindsay D. Swiger of Jackson Lewis's Jacksonville office, emailed Plaintiff regarding a possible settlement.
5. The close timing between Plaintiff's protected deposition testimony, Amentum's termination decision, and communications from Jackson Lewis attorneys in both cases demonstrates inter-office coordination and retaliatory motive.

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

6. Plaintiff also learned that Attorney Samples issued a subpoena to Amentum seeking her employment records during active litigation between Plaintiff and Amentum, showing improper cross-case use of information.
7. Plaintiff contends that Amentum's termination decision was influenced by information shared by its counsel and that the conduct constitutes retaliation for protected activity, as well as a continuation of the discriminatory and retaliatory pattern described in the prior complaint.

IV. COUNT XI – RETALIATION FOR PROTECTED ACTIVITY (Post-Deposition Termination)

1. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all prior allegations in the Revised Third Amended Complaint.
2. Plaintiff engaged in protected activity under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and other applicable federal laws, including:
 - Filing complaints of discrimination and retaliation; and
 - Participating in deposition testimony related to her prior protected activity.
3. Amentum, through its agents and counsel, retaliated against Plaintiff by terminating her employment on October 29, 2025, immediately following her deposition in the Curtiss-Wright case.

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

4. The termination was motivated by Plaintiff's participation in protected legal activity and her opposition to discriminatory and unsafe workplace practices.
5. This conduct violated 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-3(a) (Title VII's retaliation provision) and constitutes retaliation in violation of public policy and federal law.
6. As a direct and proximate result of this retaliation, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer:
 - o Loss of income and benefits;
 - o Loss of future earning capacity;
 - o Emotional distress and humiliation; and
 - o Damage to her professional reputation.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

- a. Enter judgment in her favor and against Defendant Amentum Corporation;
- b. Award back pay in biweekly increments until paid in full;
- c. Award front pay and benefits for loss of future earnings;
- d. Award compensatory and punitive damages for emotional distress and willful retaliation;
- e. Award costs and fees incurred in prosecuting this action; and
- f. Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

V. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

You can restate your general relief request as you did in the Third Amended Complaint, referencing this new count.

Subject: Notice of Termination

In accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policy AM-HRS-PL-0309-LA, titled Professional Conduct (made available to you on the Company's Intranet), and IAW Exhibit B – Progressive Discipline Guide of the applicable CBA, Rule #5d unauthorized absence for three consecutive work shifts, this memorandum serves as notification you are being terminated effective today, October 29, 2025, for unauthorized absence for three consecutive work shifts.

As previously mentioned, you have been out on leave of absence since August 8, 2025. You were notified on September 10, 2025, that Hartford denied your Short-Term Disability and FMLA claim. Additionally, you were also notified that the WC claim you filed on September 12, 2025, was denied by our third-party vendor, Sedgwick, on October 14, 2025. Given the outcomes of these claims and the necessity of your attendance for your role to perform the essential functions of your position, as it would be an undue hardship to allow you to remain on leave indefinitely, you were notified on October 17, 2025, that you were required to return to work on October 20, 2025. You failed to report to work as instructed for your shift, and were sent a follow-up email on October 20, 2025, advising that if you failed to report to work by Wednesday, October 22, 2025, additional discipline up to and including termination would be taken.

Your final paycheck through October 29, 2025, and information on your benefit continuance will be forwarded to your home address. Please contact the Human Resource office at 850-484-6250 if you have questions.

RE: Nelson v. Amentum, Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

From Swiger, Lindsay Dennis (Jacksonville) <Lindsay.Swiger@jacksonlewis.com>

Date Wed 10/29/2025 3:52 PM

To Debra Nelson <[REDACTED]>

Cc Blanton, Zackary A. (Jacksonville) <Zackary.Blanton@jacksonlewis.com>

Good afternoon Ms. Nelson:

The Court has docketed your Motion for Leave to File Third Amended Complaint. Defendants' deadline to respond to the Motion is November 10.

In your email below, you stated that the Third Amended Complaint will be fully self-contained and will specify which claims are asserted against which defendants. To date, we have not received a revised draft of the Third Amended Complaint which meets these criteria. We request that you provide a revised draft of the proposed Third Amended Complaint for our review as soon as possible.

Based on the proposed Third Amended Complaint that was filed with your Motion, we have no choice but to oppose the Motion because it is not clear what claims are being asserted, what allegations are asserted in support of the claims, and which claims are asserted against which defendants.

We are available to discuss this further at your convenience.

Thank you,
Lindsay

Dear Ms. Swiger,

EXHIBIT B

Thank you for your email.

I do not oppose Defendants' request for an extension of time to respond until the Court rules on my Motion for Leave to File the Third Amended Complaint.

The Third Amended Complaint will be fully self-contained and will specify which claims are asserted against which defendants.

Thank you for confirming that future service emails should copy Ms. Herrera and the Jacksonville Docketing address.

Sincerely,
Debra Nelson

Subject: RE: Nelson v. Amentum, Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

Dear Ms. Nelson:

We are in receipt of Plaintiff's Motion for Leave to File Third Amended Complaint. We will discuss this matter with the Defendants and let you know our clients' position on the Motion. At the very least, the Third Amended Complaint should include all allegations within the document, rather than reference other unspecified complaints, and it should clearly identify which claims are pled against which defendants.

As we discussed yesterday, the Defendants intend to file a motion for extension of time to respond to the Second Amended Complaint because the deadline for certain of the Defendants to respond to the Second Amended Complaint is October 27, 2025. If the Court grants your motion for leave to file a Third Amended Complaint, there is no reason for the Defendants to respond to the Second Amended Complaint because it will no longer be in effect. For this reason, the Defendants intend to file a motion to extend the Defendants' deadline to respond to the operative pleading until the Court rules on your motion for leave to file a Third Amended Complaint. Please let us know if you oppose or agree to this request for an extension of time so we can notify the Court of your position.

We are available to discuss this further at your convenience.

Additionally, we request that you copy Janet Herrera and Jacksonville Docketing (both copied here) on future service emails.

Thank you,
Lindsay

Courtesy Copy – Motion for Leave to File Third Amended Complaint

Dear Ms. Swiger and Mr. Blanton,

Attached please find a courtesy copy of my Motion for Leave to File Third Amended Complaint and the proposed Third Amended Complaint that was filed with the Court today in Nelson v. Amentum Government Services Parent Holdings LLC, et al., Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB (N.D. Fla.).

This filing clarifies that:

- The Title VII claims (Counts I–III) are directed solely at Amentum Government Services Parent Holdings LLC, and
- The state-law claims (Counts IV–VIII) are asserted against the individual defendants.

I have included you both on this message for notice and record purposes.

A hard-copy filing has also been sent to the Clerk of Court via USPS Priority Mail Express for docketing. Tracking number ER223548396US

Respectfully,

Employment Records regarding Debra Nelson

Dear Sir or Madam:

Our firm represents Defendants Curtiss-Wright Steam and Air Solutions, Stephanie Lanier, and Shan Sablotsky in the above-referenced lawsuit. Enclosed is a subpoena requesting that your office send us a copy of any and all documents and materials relating to the employment of Plaintiff Debra Nelson ((DOB:11,1972; SSN: 249-29-XXX)). In lieu of your having to appear in person to produce the records, we will accept a mailed copy of your records by November 20, 2025.

Also enclosed is a Records Certificate of Authority that you or your designee will need to complete and sign. Please return the original signed certificate to us along with the records that it supports. This Certificate may be filed with the court; therefore, you should keep a copy for your files. We will accept and process an invoice for reasonable and customary copying and mailing charges.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us. Thank you in advance for your assistance with this matter.

EXHIBIT C

AO 88B (Rev. 02/14) Subpoena to Produce Documents, Information, or Objects or to Permit Inspection of Premises in a Civil Action (Page 3)

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
 - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
 - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.
