

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

d. update the prayer for relief to include a request for front pay based on the new retaliatory discharge.

3. These newly added allegations arise from the same employment relationship and the same series of discriminatory and retaliatory actions already at issue in this case.
4. The amendment will not delay proceedings, prejudice Defendants, or expand discovery beyond issues already implicated by the existing claims.
5. Plaintiff is filing the Fourth Amended Complaint simultaneously with this Motion, as required.

II. LOCAL RULE 7.1(B) CERTIFICATION

Pursuant to N.D. Fla. Loc. R. 7.1(B), Plaintiff certifies that she attempted to confer with counsel for Defendants regarding this motion. Plaintiff emailed defense counsel, Lindsay Swiger and Zackary Blanton, informing them of her intent to seek leave to file a Fourth Amended Complaint. As of the time of this filing, Plaintiff has not received a response indicating whether Defendants consent or oppose the requested relief.

III. LEGAL STANDARD

6. Rule 15 embodies the federal policy of resolving cases on their merits rather than on technical pleading defects.
7. Leave to amend is typically granted unless there is:
 - o undue delay,
 - o bad faith,
 - o repeated failure to cure deficiencies,
 - o undue prejudice to the opposing party, or
 - o futility.
8. None of these circumstances are present here.

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

9. The amendment is based on new, material, and time-sensitive facts relevant to Plaintiff's claims of retaliation and wrongful termination.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. GRANT Plaintiff leave to file the Fourth Amended Complaint attached as Exhibit 1;
2. Direct the Clerk of Court to accept and docket the Fourth Amended Complaint as the operative pleading; and
3. Grant any further relief the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted 15th of November, 2025,

Debra Nelson
Plaintiff, Pro Se
