

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
PENSACOLA DIVISION

DEBRA NELSON

Plaintiff,

v.

Amentum Government Services Parent
Holdings LLC,
CLARENCE XANDER, JANICE HUGHES,
HEATHER GUNN, DAKOTA THOMAS,
ELIAS VELASQUEZ, and
YUSEF ABDUL-JAMI,

Defendants.

C.A. No.: 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

SIXTH AMENDED COMPLAINT

I. INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff files this Sixth Amended Complaint to cure pleading deficiencies, remove claims previously identified as speculative by the Court, and ensure full compliance with the Court's Orders regarding pleading standards.
2. Plaintiff was employed by Amentum as a Non-Destructive-Inspection (NDI) Technician at the NAS Whiting Field facility in Milton, Florida from November 18, 2024 until her unlawful termination on October 29, 2025.
3. During her employment, Plaintiff repeatedly reported safety, quality, and compliance violations and complained of gender-based discrimination, harassment, and retaliation.

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

4. Defendants responded by creating a hostile work environment, fabricating disciplinary actions, and ultimately terminating Plaintiff in retaliation for her protected activity.
5. Plaintiff now seeks redress for violations of her federal statutory rights, for tortious conduct under Florida law, and for the damages she has suffered.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 (federal question) and 1367 (supplemental jurisdiction).
7. The claims arise under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e-2 and 2000e-3, the Florida Whistleblower Act Fla. Stat. § 448.102(3) and various Florida statutes.
8. Venue is proper in this District because a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims occurred at the NAS Whiting Field site in Milton, FL, in Santa Rosa County and Defendants conduct business in this Division.

III. PARTIES

9. Plaintiff – Debra Nelson, a resident of North Charleston, South Carolina.
10. Defendant Amentum – Amentum Government Services Parent Holdings LLC, a federal-contractor that employed Plaintiff and is an “employer” within the meaning of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-2(a).
11. Individual Defendants – Clarence Xander, Janice Hughes, Heather Gunn, Dakota Thomas, Elias Velasquez, and Yusef Abdul-Jami were, at all relevant times, employees of Amentum in supervisory or managerial capacities and acted pursuant to Amentum’s policies.

IV. EXHAUSTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

12. Plaintiff filed one charge with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) alleging gender discrimination, hostile work environment, and retaliation. The charge was filed on August 14, 2025 (EEOC Charge No. 510-2025-08373).
13. The EEOC issued a Right-to-Sue notice to Plaintiff on August 14, 2025, satisfying the statutory exhaustion requirement of 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(b).
14. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Title VII claims are timely and properly exhausted.

V. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. Employment and Initial Harassment

15. Plaintiff began employment with Defendant Amentum at the NAS Whiting Field facility on November 18, 2024 as an NDI Technician.
16. On May 28, 2025, Plaintiff was called into a meeting in the equipment room at 2:25 p.m. (five minutes before her shift ended). Present were Supervisor Elias Velasquez, Union Representative Jimmy Murphy, Maintenance Supervisor Dakota Thomas, NDI Technician Yusef Abdul-Jami, and Plaintiff.
17. During the meeting, Plaintiff was questioned about the contents of Locker 2. Plaintiff pointed to Yusef Abdul-Jami because he was supposed to be responsible for locker 2. When Plaintiff continued to reference Yusef as the responsible party, Supervisor Velasquez shouted, "Plaintiff don't have to have an attitude and Plaintiff don't need this “*f__ing shit in here.” The other men said nothing. Plaintiff told Velasquez that he doesn't have the right to be cursing at her; Velasquez continued questioning Plaintiff about Locker 2 despite Yusef being the one ultimately responsible for it.
18. Plaintiff immediately reported the incident to Human Resources.

B. Retaliatory Conduct Begins

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

19. On May 29, 2025, a meeting was held with Union Chief Steward James Carnley, HR Generalist Janice Hughes, Business Manager Heather Gunn, Site Manager Clarence Xander, Supervisor Dakota Thomas, and Plaintiff. The parties discussed Velasquez's cursing and Plaintiff's concerns about locker-assignment, work load balance and process-control compliance.
20. Defendant Xander instructed Plaintiff that she was "not to text Yusef anymore." He further characterized her text message response to Yusef as "aggressive" and said she had an "attitude." No discipline was imposed on Velasquez for cursing at Plaintiff.

C. Leave of Absence and Write-Up

21. Plaintiff began a medical leave of absence on May 30, 2025 because of the hostile environment.
22. On August 1, 2025, despite prior approval from Supervisor Velasquez and Payroll to be off without pay, Plaintiff was written up for a "no-call-no-show."
23. On August 5, 2025, Plaintiff spoke with a Corporate Representative and told of her intent to file a lawsuit. Plaintiff filed a formal Ethics complaint with Amentum alleging gender-based mischaracterization and retaliatory conduct.
24. The same day, Plaintiff was accused by Corporate of saying, "Who the f* do Plaintiff think Plaintiff are," to Supervisor Elias Velasquez, a statement she categorically denies. Corporate refused to disclose who made the accusation.

D. Deposition and Termination

25. On October 28, 2025, Plaintiff gave sworn deposition testimony in a separate federal discrimination lawsuit (Nelson v. Curtiss-Wright), describing discriminatory and retaliatory conduct by Amentum.
26. Less than twenty-four hours later, on October 29, 2025, Amentum terminated Plaintiff. The termination letter, dated 3:06 p.m., cited "unauthorized leave" and

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

“unprofessional conduct” despite the EEOC Right-to-Sue notices, prior approvals for leave and attempts to schedule a step 3 meeting with the Union Representative Jamie Littlefield.

27. On October 31, 2025, defense counsel in the separate case issued a subpoena that referenced Plaintiff’s termination.

E. Ongoing Harm

28. Plaintiff has suffered loss of wages, loss of benefits, severe emotional distress, anxiety, sleep disturbances, and reputational harm.

VI. CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

COUNT I – GENDER DISCRIMINATION (Title VII) (Against Defendant Amentum)

29. Plaintiff incorporates the factual allegations set forth in Section V, Paragraphs 15 through 28, as if fully set forth herein. Plaintiff does not incorporate the allegations of any other Count.

30. Plaintiff is a female employee, a protected class under Title VII.

31. Defendant Amentum treated Plaintiff less favorably than similarly situated male employees (e.g., Abdul-Jami) with respect to: a. Job assignments – Plaintiff was expected and being coerced to take on more of the work load and time-consuming tasks, while her male coworker received lighter assignments. b. Performance evaluations – Plaintiff received a written warning based on alleged conduct and demeanor, while similarly situated male coworkers were not disciplined for comparable workplace interactions or conduct.

32. The disparate treatment was motivated by Plaintiff’s gender, as shown by the gender-based language used by Site Manager Xander (“aggressive,” “attitude”) and the pattern of protecting male employees while penalizing Plaintiff.

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

33. Plaintiff suffered adverse employment consequences, including loss of pay, loss of promotion opportunities, and emotional distress.

34. Amentum's conduct violates Title VII, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e-2(a) and 2000e-3(a).

COUNT II – RETALIATION (Title VII) (Against Defendant Amentum)

35. Plaintiff incorporates the factual allegations set forth in Section V, Paragraphs 15 through 28, as if fully set forth herein. Plaintiff does not incorporate the allegations of any other Count.

36. Plaintiff engaged in protected activity by: a. Filing the EEOC charge (August 14, 2025). b. Reporting safety, quality, and compliance violations to management (May 28–29, 2025). c. Giving sworn deposition testimony on October 28, 2025, in the separate lawsuit Nelson v. Curtiss-Wright.

37. Shortly after each protected activity, Amentum took adverse employment actions: a. Write-up for “no-call-no-show” on August 1, 2025 despite prior approval. b. Fabricated written warning on August 6, 2025 for alleged misconduct for unauthorized time off on August 1, 2025. c. Termination on October 29, 2025, less than 24 hours after the deposition.

38. The close temporal proximity between Plaintiff's protected activity and Amentum's adverse actions, along with the escalation of discipline and retaliatory conduct that followed, demonstrates a causal link. Plaintiff's termination was motivated by her protected disclosures and by her protected deposition testimony.

39. Amentum's conduct violates Title VII's anti-retaliation provision, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-3(a).

COUNT III – HOSTILE WORK ENVIRONMENT (Title VII) (Against Defendant Amentum)

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

40. Plaintiff incorporates the factual allegations set forth in Section V, Paragraphs 15 through 28, as if fully set forth herein. Plaintiff does not incorporate the allegations of any other Count.
41. Plaintiff was subjected to unwelcome harassment because of her sex, including:
- a. Verbal abuse by Supervisor Elias Velasquez on May 28, 2025 (cursing at Plaintiff).
 - b. Derogatory comments by Site Manager Xander that stated Plaintiff's inquiry into what she was accused of saying "didn't matter".
 - c. Failure of management to investigate or discipline the harassers despite Plaintiff's complaints.
42. The harassment was severe and pervasive enough to alter the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's employment, creating an abusive environment that caused anxiety, sleeplessness, and two different medical leaves of absences.
43. Amentum knew or should have known of the harassment and failed to take prompt remedial action, violating Title VII.

COUNT IV – DEFAMATION (Florida Law) (Against Defendants Velasquez, Xander, Thomas and Hughes)

44. Plaintiff incorporates the factual allegations set forth in Section V, Paragraphs 15 through 28, as if fully set forth herein. Plaintiff does not incorporate the allegations of any other Count.
45. On August 5, 2025, Defendants Janice Hughes and Dakota Thomas circulated a written memorandum to Amentum management stating that Plaintiff "took unauthorized leave".
46. The statements by Hughes and Thomas were false; Plaintiff's leave was approved by Supervisor Elias Velasquez and authorized by payroll.
47. Defendant Elias Velasquez falsely accused Plaintiff of cursing at the meeting on May 28, 2025, in the presence of Dakota Thomas, Yusef Abdul-Jami and Jimmy Murphy. That never happened.

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

48. Defendant Clarence Xander stated that “Plaintiff cursed too” but would not disclose to Plaintiff what she was accused of saying.

49. These false statements were communicated to third parties (Amentum management and coworkers) and placed in Plaintiff’s personnel file, causing reputational harm and contributing to her termination.

50. These Defendants acted with actual malice or reckless disregard for the truth.

51. Plaintiff therefore sustains a claim for defamation under Florida common law.

COUNT V – INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS
(Florida Law) (Against Defendants Amentum, Velasquez, Hughes, and Thomas)

52. Plaintiff incorporates the factual allegations set forth in Section V, Paragraphs 15 through 28, as if fully set forth herein. Plaintiff does not incorporate the allegations of any other Count.

53. Defendants engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, specifically: a. Defendants Hughes and Thomas fabricated disciplinary allegations that Plaintiff took “unauthorized leave.” b. Defendant Amentum terminated her immediately after her protected deposition testimony. c. Defendant Velasquez verbally assaulted Plaintiff without intervention.

54. The conduct was beyond all possible bounds of decency and was intended to cause severe emotional distress.

55. Plaintiff suffered humiliation, anxiety, sleeplessness, and ongoing emotional trauma.

56. Plaintiff therefore sustains a claim for intentional infliction of emotional distress under Florida law.

COUNT VI – CIVIL CONSPIRACY (42 U.S.C. § 1985(3)) (Against Defendants Xander, Hughes, Gunn, Thomas, Velasquez, and Abdul-Jami)

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

57. Plaintiff incorporates the factual allegations set forth in Section V, Paragraphs 15 through 28, as if fully set forth herein. Plaintiff does not incorporate the allegations of any other Count.
58. Defendants Amentum, Clarence Xander, Janice Hughes, Heather Gunn, Dakota Thomas, Elias Velasquez, and Yusef Abdul-Jami knowingly acted in concert and reached an agreement to deprive Plaintiff of equal protection of the laws and equal privileges and immunities on the basis of sex.
59. Defendants acted outside the normal scope of legitimate employment functions by concealing safety violations, suppressing protected reporting, discrediting Plaintiff through gender-based characterizations, and retaliating against Plaintiff for objecting to unlawful conduct.
60. In furtherance of the conspiracy, Defendants engaged in coordinated conduct to protect Defendant Abdul-Jami despite known safety violations, including the following overt acts: a. Supervisors Velasquez and Thomas had actual knowledge of FAA-related safety violations involving penetrant process controls; b. Site Manager Xander and HR Generalist Hughes took no disciplinary action or corrective measures against Mr. Abdul-Jami despite that knowledge; and c. Affected aircraft were not removed from service or reinspected, allowing the violations to continue.
61. Defendants further acted in coordination to discredit Plaintiff and suppress her safety reporting through gender-based mischaracterizations, including the following overt acts: a. Defendant Xander labeled Plaintiff “aggressive” and accused her of having an “attitude” in response to reporting safety and regulatory violations; b. These characterizations were used by Defendants Hughes and Gunn to divert attention from the reported FAA violations to Plaintiff’s demeanor; and c. Similarly situated male employees were not subjected to comparable character attacks or scrutiny.

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

62. Defendants further acted in coordination to conceal accusations against Plaintiff and manipulate disciplinary procedures, including the following overt acts: a. Alleged accusations against Plaintiff were concealed for several months and not disclosed by Defendant Xander despite repeated requests; b. No meaningful investigation or verification of the accusations was conducted by Defendant Hughes; and c. The concealed accusations were later used by Defendant Amentum to justify adverse employment actions.
63. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' coordinated and discriminatory acts, Plaintiff was deprived of equal protection of the laws and equal privileges and immunities, including the right to be free from sex-based discrimination and retaliation in the terms and conditions of employment. Plaintiff suffered damages including, but not limited to, emotional distress, loss of income and employment benefits, damage to professional reputation, and other economic and non-economic losses.
64. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, constitutes an actionable civil conspiracy in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3).

COUNT VII – NEGLIGENT SUPERVISION (Florida Law) (Against Defendant Amentum)

65. Plaintiff incorporates the factual allegations set forth in Section V, Paragraphs 15 through 28, as if fully set forth herein. Plaintiff does not incorporate the allegations of any other Count.
66. Defendant Amentum knew or should have known that its supervisors and managerial employees, including Clarence Xander, Dakota Thomas, Elias Velasquez, Janice Hughes, and Heather Gunn, were engaging in unsafe, retaliatory, and procedurally improper conduct and failed to properly supervise, train, or discipline them.
67. Defendant Amentum's negligent supervision included, but was not limited to: a. Failing to supervise and correct documented FAA-related safety violations after notice; b. Allowing unsafe inspection practices to continue without remediation; c. Permitting false or unverified accusations against Plaintiff to remain concealed and unresolved; d. Failing to supervise the disciplinary process, resulting in retaliatory and unverified discipline; and e. Failing to implement or verify remedial training after notice of discriminatory and retaliatory conduct.

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

68. Defendant Amentum's failure to properly supervise, train, or discipline was a proximate cause of Plaintiff's emotional distress and economic losses.

69. Plaintiff therefore sustains a claim for negligent supervision under Florida law.

COUNT VIII – WHISTLEBLOWER RETALIATION (Fla. Stat. § 448.102(3)) (Against Defendant Amentum)

70. Plaintiff incorporates the factual allegations set forth in Section V, Paragraphs 15 through 28, as if fully set forth herein. Plaintiff does not incorporate the allegations of any other Count.

71. Plaintiff engaged in protected activity under Fla. Stat. § 448.102(3) by objecting to and refusing to participate in violations of law, rule, or regulation.

72. Following Plaintiff's protected whistleblowing activity, Defendant Amentum engaged in retaliatory actions, including: a. Silencing Plaintiff by instructing her not to communicate with Mr. Abdul-Jami; b. Subjecting Plaintiff to gender-coded criticism, including being labeled "aggressive" and having an "attitude"; c. Shifting focus from safety and compliance concerns to Plaintiff herself; d. Concealing accusations against Plaintiff; e. Issuing a disciplinary write-up on August 6; and f. Escalating adverse actions after Plaintiff continued to report the violations.

VII. DAMAGES

73. As a direct result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff has suffered: a. Back Pay and Front Pay – loss of wages and benefits from October 29, 2025 through the date of judgment, and future front pay for a period of five (5) years.

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

b. Compensatory Damages – for emotional distress, mental anguish, loss of enjoyment of life, and reputational injury. c. Punitive Damages – where Defendants acted with malice or reckless indifference to Plaintiff's federally protected rights. d. Attorney's Fees and Costs – pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(k) and Florida Statutes §§ 57.105, 57.1055.

VIII. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court enter judgment in her favor and award:

1. Declaratory relief that Defendants' conduct violated Title VII and applicable Florida law;
2. Back Pay, Front Pay, and Lost Benefits in an amount to be proven at trial;
3. Compensatory damages for emotional distress, mental anguish, and reputational injury;
4. Punitive damages in an amount sufficient to punish and deter Defendants;
5. Damages for defamation, intentional infliction of emotional distress, civil conspiracy and negligent supervision.
6. Attorney's fees, costs, and interest as allowed by law; and
7. Such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

IX. JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff hereby demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable.

Respectfully submitted 15th of January, 2026,

Debra Nelson
Plaintiff, Pro Se

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

Case No. 3:25-cv-01447-MCR-ZCB

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify that a true and correct copy of the foregoing Plaintiff's Sixth Amended Complaint was served upon counsel for Defendants by email addressed as follows:

Lindsay D. Swiger

Zackary A Blanton

Jackson Lewis P.C.

501 Riverside Avenue, Suite 902

Jacksonville, FL 32202

Email: Lindsay.Swiger@jacksonlewis.com

Zackary.Blanton@jacksonlewis.com

Respectfully submitted 15th of January 2026,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Debra Nelson". The signature is written in black ink and is positioned above a horizontal line.

Debra Nelson

Plaintiff, Pro Se

