CHARLESTON DIVISION

DEBRA NELSON

Plaintiff,

$$Y_+$$

Curtiss Wright Electro Mechanical Corp.
d/b/a Curtiss-Wright Steam and Air Solutions
STEPHANIE LANIER, and SHANE SABLITSKY,

Defendants.

C.A. No.: 2:25-CV-00405-RMG-MGB

NOTICE of ISSUANCE of SUBPOENAS to NON-PARTIES UNDER FED. R. CIV. P.
45

Plaintiff Debra Nelson respectfully submits this Notice pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 and the Court's October 30, 2025 Order (Dkt. 204) extending discovery for the limited purpose of compliance with non-party subpoenas. This Notice documents the status of each subpoena Plaintiff has caused to be issued in connection with this matter.

1. Microsoft Corporation – Western District of Washington

- Date Submitted: October 30, 2025
- Status: Plaintiff personally filed the subpoena paperwork with the Clerk of Court for the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington; issuance is pending.
- Next Step: Upon receipt of the stamped subpoena, Plaintiff will complete service on Microsoft and file supplemental proof.
- Exhibits: A-1 (Subpoena Application) and A-2 (Proof of Service Pending Issuance).

2. Google LLC – Northern District of California

- Date Issued: October 31, 2025
- Service: Emailed to Google's Legal Investigations Support team at its designated address for service of process.
- Status: No counsel has appeared for Google as of this filing. Plaintiff will supplement upon receipt of acknowledgment or reference number.
- Exhibits: B-1 (Subpoena) and B-2 (Proof of Service via Email to Legal Compliance Department).

3. American Honda Motor Co., Inc. – Eastern District of California

- Date Issued: November 3, 2025

Case No. 2:25-CV-00405-RMG-MGB

- Service: Mailed via certified mail to Honda's registered agent.
- Status: Subpoena issued; stamped copy mailed with service packet and not yet returned. Proof of service attached. Plaintiff will supplement with certified copy from the Clerk upon receipt.
- Exhibits: C-1 (Issued Subpoena) and C-2 (USPS Proof of Service).

4. Motorola Mobility LLC – Northern District of Illinois

- Date Mailed: November 4, 2025
- Status: UIDDA application and supporting subpoena mailed to the Clerk of Court; USPS tracking shows delivery in transit with expected delivery by 6 p.m. on November 5, 2025. Plaintiff will supplement upon final delivery confirmation and issuance.
- Exhibits: E-1 (UIDDA Application Packet – Filed Nov 4 2025) and E-2 (USPS Proof of Service – Delivery Pending).

Additional Statement

Plaintiff files this Notice to maintain an accurate record of her good-faith efforts to secure evidence through authorized non-party subpoenas under Rule 45. Plaintiff declines to submit piecemeal responses to repetitive or irrelevant filings by non-party counsel and respectfully requests that the Court disregard any duplicative objections already addressed by prior orders. This Notice is for record-keeping purposes only and does not seek additional relief.

Thank you for choosing Priority Mail Express service.

Note: The Postal Service does not offer money-back guarantees for military or DPO shipments delayed due to customs inspections or the item was delayed for an APO/FPO/DPO that was closed on the intended day of delivery or the delay was caused by one of the situations in DMM 604.9.5.5. Contact USPS.com or your local Post Office for information on delivery commitments and Priority Mail Express Military Service (PMEMS). For details, see DMM 703.2.5, which is available at usps.com.

When a mailer submits a Priority Mail Express item requiring a signature and the Postal Service cannot deliver the item on the first attempt, the Postal Service leaves a notice for the addressee. If the addressee does not claim the item within 5 calendar days, the Postal Service returns the item to the sender at no additional charge.

Insurance coverage: The Postal Service provides insurance only in accordance with postal regulations in the DMM, which is available at usps.com. The DMM sets forth the specific types of losses that are covered, the limitations on coverage, terms of insurance, conditions of payment, and adjudication procedures. Certain items are not insurable. The DMM consists of federal regulations, and USPS personnel are not authorized to change or waive these regulations or grant exceptions. A mailer who requires information on Priority Mail Express insurance may contact the Postal Service before submitting an item. Limitations prescribed in the DMM provide, in part, that:

1. Insurance coverage extends to the actual value of the contents at the time of mailing or the cost of repairs, not to exceed the insured limit for the item.
2. The Postal Service insures the contents of Priority Mail Express "merchandise" items (with "merchandise" defined by postal regulations) against loss, damage, or missing contents. The Postal Service includes coverage up to $100 per mailpiece at no additional charge. Additional merchandise insurance up to $5,000 per mailpiece may be available for purchase. Additional insurance for Priority Mail Express items is not available unless a signature is required.

3. The Postal Service insures "nonnegotiable documents" (as defined by postal indemnity regulations) against loss, damage, or missing contents up to $100 per mailpiece for document reconstruction, subject to additional limitations for multiple pieces lost or damaged in a single catastrophic occurrence. Document reconstruction insurance provides reimbursement for the reasonable costs incurred in reconstructing duplicates of nonnegotiable documents mailed. Document reconstruction insurance coverage above $100 per mailpiece is not available. The mailer should not attempt to purchase additional document insurance, because additional document insurance is void.
4. The Postal Service insures "negotiable items" (defined by postal regulations as items that can be converted to cash without loss of value, currency, or bullion up to a maximum of $15 per mailpiece).
5. The Postal Service does not provide coverage for consequential losses due to loss, damage, or delay of Priority Mail Express items or for concealed damage, spoilage of perishable items, and articles improperly packaged or too fragile to withstand normal handling in the mail. Coverage, terms, and limitations are subject to change. For additional limitations and terms of coverage, consult the DMM, which is available at usps.com.

Indemnity Claims (Loss, Damaged or Missing Contents): Either the mailer or the addressee may file an indemnity claim for loss, damage or missing contents. The claimant may submit the claim online at usps.com, or by mail, for more information see Publication 122, Domestic Claims, Customer Preference Guide. The timelines for claims are as follows: claims for loss - no sooner than 7 days but no later than 60 days after the date of mailing; claims for damage or missing contents - immediately but no later than 60 days from the date of mailing. Retain the original USPS retail receipt or ShipStation receipt for claims purposes. For claims involving damage or missing contents, also retain the article, container, and packaging for Postal Service inspection when requested.

Refund of Postage and Fees (Service Performance): If delivery of a Priority Mail Express (PME) item does not meet the scheduled delivery commitment(s), online and commercial customers may submit a refund request by visiting USPS.com. Retail customers may submit a refund request either online at USPS.com or at retail locations. Refund requests for postage must be submitted no sooner than 2 days and no later than 30 days from the date of mailing. Extra Services fees, refund requests must be submitted no sooner than 30 days and no later than 60 days from the date of mailing. Each tracking number can only be submitted once for all applicable refunds. Refund requests for PME or PME with Extra Services must be combined into a single submission.

3. The Postal Service insures "negotiable documents" (as defined by postal indemnity regulations) against loss, damage, or missing contents up to $100 per mailpiece for document reconstruction, subject to additional limitations for multiple pieces lost or damaged in a single catastrophic occurrence. Document reconstruction insurance provides reimbursement for the reasonable costs incurred in reconstructing duplicates of negotiable documents mailed. Document reconstruction insurance coverage above $100 per mailpiece is not available. The mailer should not attempt to purchase additional document insurance, because additional document insurance is void.

4. The Postal Service insures "negotiable items" (defined by postal regulations as items that can be converted to cash without loss of value, currency, or bullion up to a maximum of $15 per mailpiece). In re Subpoena to:Cellco Partnership d/b/a Verizon Wireless

Verizon Security Subpoena Compliance

180 Washington Valley Road

Bedminster, New Jersey 07921

Issued in Connection With:

Debra Nelson v. Curtiss-Wright Electro-Mechanical Corp.

United States District Court, District of South Carolina

Case No. 2:25-cv-00405-RMG-MGB

MOTION TO ENFORCE SUBPOENA TO VERIZON WIRELESS

Plaintiff, Debra Nelson, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court for an order compelling CellCo Partnership d/b/a Verizon Wireless, Custodian of Records, located at 180 Washington Valley Road, Bedminster, NJ 07921, to comply with a duly issued and served subpoena under Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

I. BACKGROUND

EXHIBIT E-1

1. On October 17, 2025, Plaintiff issued a valid Subpoena to Produce Documents, Information, or Objects pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 45, directed to Verizon Wireless. The subpoena was properly served upon Verizon through its registered agent and required compliance on or before November 2, 2025.

Reissued Verizon Subpoena

2. The subpoena sought records and electronically stored information relevant to this action, as detailed in Schedule A, including but not limited to access logs, surveillance data, and legal request records pertaining to Plaintiff's phone numbers 843-813-1335 and 843-277-4142, for the period August 1, 2023 to present.

Verizon Schedule A

3. As of the date of this filing, Verizon Wireless has failed to respond, object, or otherwise comply with the subpoena, and no motion to quash has been filed.
4. Plaintiff has acted in good faith and provided adequate time for compliance. Verizon's non-response constitutes a failure to obey a lawful subpoena under Rule 45(g).

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(2)(B)(i), when a subpoenaed party fails to comply or object, the requesting party may move the court for an order compelling production.

Rule 45(g) further authorizes the Court to hold in contempt any person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or a related court order.

III. ARGUMENT

EXHIBIT E-1

Verizon Wireless was served with a valid and properly issued subpoena. The requested information is narrowly tailored, relevant, and necessary to establish evidence of unauthorized access and surveillance activities connected to the claims in this matter. Verizon's silence and non-compliance have obstructed discovery and prejudiced Plaintiff's ability to prepare her case. Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court to:

- Compel Verizon Wireless to produce the documents and data specified in Schedule A within ten (10) days of the Court's order; or,
- In the alternative, require Verizon to appear and show cause why it should not be held in contempt under Rule 45(g).

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to issue an Order to Enforce Subpoena directing Verizon Wireless to comply in full and produce the requested records forthwith.

Exhibits List

Exhibit A – Subpoena to Produce Documents (AO 88B)

Exhibit B – Affidavit of service to Verizon

Exhibit C – Verizon Letter (September 5, 2025)

Exhibit D – South Carolina case caption / docket page

Respectfully submitted 4th of November 2025,

Debra Nelson
Plaintiff, Pro Se

EXHIBIT E-1Subpoenas Issued to Verizon Wireless Cover Sheet*Exhibit A – Subpoenas to Verizon Wireless

Plaintiff attaches three versions of the federal subpoena (AO 88B) issued in connection with the above-captioned case, reflecting updates made to ensure compliance with Rule 45 and Verizon's specific production requirements:

1. Original Subpoena (September 24, 2025) – addressed to Plaintiff as the point of contact.
2. Revised Subpoena (October 10, 2025) – addressed to the U.S. District Court in accordance with Verizon's request that the subpoena list a court address.
3. Reissued Subpoena (November 2, 2025) – addressed to the Records Custodian, Brad Jung, Jung Disability & Injury Advocates, to facilitate proper chain of custody and receipt.

Each version commands the same production from Cellco Partnership d/b/a Verizon Wireless at 180 Washington Valley Road, Bedminster, NJ 07921, with compliance dates of September 24, 2025, October 10, 2025 and November 2, 2025 at 5:00 p.m. EST and identical Schedule A.

Insurance coverage: The Postal Service provides insurance only in accordance with postal regulations in the DMM, which is available at pe.usps.com. The DMM sets forth the specific types of losses that are covered, the limitations on coverage, terms of insurance, conditions of payment, and redaction procedures. Certain items are not insurable. The DMM consists of federal regulations, and USPS personnel are not authorized to change or waive these regulations or grant exceptions. A mailer who requires information on Priority Mail Express insurance may contact the Postal Service before submitting an item. Limitations prescribed in the DMM provide, in part, that:

1. Insurance coverage extends to the actual value of the contents at the time of mailing or the cost of repairs, not to exceed the insured limit for the item.

2. The Postal Service insures the contents of Priority Mail Express "merchandise" items (with "merchandise" defined by postal regulations) against loss, damage, or missing contents. The Postal Service insures coverage up to $100 per mailpiece at no additional charge. Additional merchandise insurance up to $5,000 per mailpiece may be available for purchase. Additional insurance for Priority Mail Express items is not available unless a signature is required.

3. Insurance coverage extends to the actual value of the contents at the time of mailing or the cost of repairs, not to exceed the insured limit for the item.

4. The Postal Service insures the contents of Priority Mail Express "merchandise" items (with "merchandise" defined by postal regulations) against loss, damage, or missing contents. The Postal Service insures coverage up to $100 per mailpiece at no additional charge. Additional merchandise insurance up to $5,000 per mailpiece may be available for purchase. Additional insurance for Priority Mail Express items is not available unless a signature is required.

5. The Postal Service insures the contents of Priority Mail Express "merchandise" items (with "merchandise" defined by postal regulations) against loss, damage, or missing contents. The Postal Service insures coverage up to $100 per mailpiece at no additional charge. Additional merchandise insurance up to $5,000 per mailpiece may be available for purchase. Additional insurance for Priority Mail Express items is not available unless a signature is required.

Thank you for choosing Priority Mail Express service.

Indemnity Claims (Loss, Damage or Missing Contents): Either the mailer or the addressee may file an indemnity claim for loss, damage or missing contents. The claimant may submit the claim online at usps.com, or by mail, for more information see Publication 122, Domestic Claims, Customer Reference Guide. The timeframes for claims are as follows: claims for loss - no sooner than 7 days but no later than 60 days after the date of mailing; claims for damage or missing contents - immediately but no later than 60 days from the date of mailing. Retain the original USPS retail receipt or eReceipt/electronic receipt for claims purposes. For claims involving damage or missing contents, also retain the article, container, and packaging for Postal Service inspection when requested.

Refund of Postage and Fees (Service Performance): If delivery of a Priority Mail Express (PME) item does not meet the scheduled delivery commitment(s), online and commercial customers may submit a refund request by visiting USPS.com. Retail customers may submit a refund request either online at USPS.com or at retail locations. Refund requests for postage must be submitted no later than 30 days from the date of mailing; Extra Services fees refund requests must be submitted no later than 60 days from the date of mailing. Each tracking number can only be submitted once for all applicable refunds. Refund requests for PME or PME with Extra Services must be combined into a single submission.

3. The Postal Service insures "nonnegotiable documents" (as defined by postal indemnity regulations) against loss, damage, or missing contents up to $100 per mailpiece for document reconstruction, subject to additional limitations for multiple pieces lost or damaged in a single catastrophic occurrence. Document reconstruction insurance provides reimbursement for the reasonable costs incurred in reconstructing duplicates of nonnegotiable documents mailed. Document reconstruction insurance coverage above $100 per mailpiece is not available. The mailer should not attempt to purchase additional document insurance, because additional document insurance is void.

4. The Postal Service insures "negotiable items" (defined by postal regulations as items that can be converted to cash without forgery), currency, or bullion up to a maximum of $15 per mailpiece.

5. The Postal Service does not provide coverage for consequential losses due to loss, damage, or delay of Priority Mail Express items or for concealed damage, spoilage of perishable items, and articles improperly packaged or too fragile to withstand normal handling in the mail. Coverage, terms, and limitations are subject to change. For additional limitations and terms of coverage, consult the DMM, which is available at pe.usps.com.
